

FALL QUARTER WORKSHOPS

Presentation Skills for the Graduate Student Part I

Learn the fundamentals of public speaking and presentation skills, including nonverbal communication, stage presence, use of voice and body, and managing visual aids. In order to receive credit for Part I, all students must complete Part II. Attendance will be capped at 30 students.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

Presentation Skills for the Graduate Student Part II

Take the skills you learned in Part I and put them into action! All students must be prepared to present at this session. Your speeches will be videotaped and critiqued.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

Effective Communication for the Work Environment

Communication varies in every situation and setting—what constitutes effective communication with your friends or family may not be appropriate at an internship or professional setting. Learn the essentials of workplace communication and prepare yourself for life beyond college!

Presented by Ashanti Houston Hands, Thurgood Marshall Dean of Student Affairs

Public Speaking: Perfecting Your Stage Presence

Public speaking is about much more than writing a good speech! You must be able to use your nonverbal communication skills to really get your message to your audience with impact. In this workshop, identify your personal style of stage presence and get a chance to practice in front of an audience!

Presented by Nick Mata, Director of Student Support Services, Miramar College

WINTER QUARTER WORKSHOPS

Communicating with Faculty

Visit http://ets.ucsd.edu for more information on this workshop offered in Winter 2006!

Sponsored by the Office of Graduate Studies and Research and the UCSD Express to Success Programs

Public Speaking: Knowing Your Audience

Designing a presentation is no simple task. It is necessary to consider all aspects of public speaking including the environment, your delivery, and... YOUR AUDIENCE! Knowing and understanding the makeup and demographics of your audience will enable you to be more effective as a presenter! Gain useful insight on getting to know your audience at this workshop!

Presented by Andy Ceperley, UCSD Career Services Center Director

Preparing Presentations:

How Can UCSD Libraries Help?

Join us on a field trip to explore the resources offered by the UCSD Libraries. Learn about how UCSD Libraries can help you in preparing for presentations!

Presented by Marlo Young, UCSD Libraries

Understanding Group Dynamics and Personality Styles

Attend this interactive workshop to learn more about group dynamics and personality styles that will help you to be an effective team player! Discover your most dominant style and how to best interact in team settings and relationships.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

SPRING QUARTER WORKSHOPS

Presentation Skills for the Graduate Student Part I

(This seminar is a repeat of the Fall Quarter session)

Learn the fundamentals of public speaking and presentation skills, including nonverbal communication, stage presence, use of voice and body, and managing visual aids. In order to receive credit for Part I, all students must complete Part II. Attendance will be capped at 30 students.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

Presentation Skills for the Graduate Student Part II

Take the skills you learned in Part I and put them into action! All students must be prepared to present at this session. Your speeches will be videotaped and critiqued.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

Presentation Skills for the Graduate Student Part I

(This seminar is a repeat of the Fall Quarter session)

Learn the fundamentals of public speaking and presentation skills, including nonverbal communication, stage presence, use of voice and body, and managing visual aids. In order to receive credit for Part I, all students must complete Part II. Attendance will be capped at 30 students.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

Presentation Skills for the Graduate Student Part II

Take the skills you learned in Part I and put them into action! All students must be prepared to present at this session. Your speeches will be videotaped and critiqued.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs

Effective Communication for the Work Environment

Communication varies in every situation and setting—what constitutes effective communication with your friends or family may not be appropriate at an internship or professional setting. Learn the essentials of workplace communication and prepare yourself for life beyond college!

Presented by Ashanti Houston Hands, Thurgood Marshall Dean of Student Affairs

Public Speaking: Perfecting Your Stage Presence

Public speaking is about much more than writing a good speech! You must be able to use your nonverbal communication skills to really get your message to your audience with impact. In this workshop, identify your personal style of stage presence and get a chance to practice in front of an audience!

Presented by Nick Mata, Director of Student Support Services, Miramar College

WINTER QUARTER WORKSHOPS

Communicating with Faculty

Visit http://ets.ucsd.edu for more information on this workshop offered in Winter 2006!

Sponsored by the Office of Graduate Studies and Research and the UCSD Express to Success Programs

Public Speaking: Knowing Your Audience

Designing a presentation is no simple task. It is necessary to consider all aspects of public speaking including the environment, your delivery, and... YOUR AUDIENCE! Knowing and understanding the makeup and demographics of your audience will enable you to be more effective as a presenter! Gain useful insight on getting to know your audience at this workshop!

Presented by Andy Ceperley, UCSD Career Services Center Director

Preparing Presentations:

How Can UCSD Libraries Help?

Join us on a field trip to explore the resources offered by the UCSD Libraries. Learn about how UCSD Libraries can help you in preparing for presentations!

Presented by Marlo Young, UCSD Libraries

Understanding Group Dynamics and Personality Styles

Attend this interactive workshop to learn more about group dynamics and personality styles that will help you to be an effective team player! Discover your most dominant style and how to best interact in team settings and relationships.

Presented by Sara Henry, UCSD Express to Success Programs